

House Republican Trust

Reagan Congressional Commission

To all who shall witness this,

Know ye, that bearing special trust and confidence in the

Integrity and Commitment of

Robert P. Baker

I have nominated, with the counsel and guidance of the Executive Committee of the National Republican Congressional Committee, and consigned unto him a full and honorable Reagan Presidential Commission in recognition of ceaseless dedication and unstinting support of Republicans in the United States House of Representatives and bestow upon him all the privileges encompassed by and appertaining unto said commission during the tenure of the current Chairman of National Republican Congressional Committee.

In testament whereof, I have ordered these Letters to be made Patent and, further, affixed the Seal of the National Republican Congressional Committee hereunto.

Commencing this fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord two thousand and eight and of the two hundred thirty second year of the Independence of this Nation at the City of Washington, D.C.
